BOARD OF COUNTY COMMISSIONERS,

Washoe County, Nevada, May 1st, 1882.

Present—Joseph Frey, Chairman; D. H. Lodge, R. H. Kinney; Geo. A. Rankin, District Attorney; R. S. Osburn, Clerk.

It appearing to the Board that the order heretofore published in the Plaindealer, on the 18th day of February, concerning the apportionment of the tax for the construction of a sidewalk along the north side of block Q, in the town of Reno, contained a misdescription of the block, the same being described as block O. It is ordered that the said order be published in the DAILY NEVADA STATE JOURNAL, for two consecutive weeks, to-wit:

ORDER—It appearing to the Board of County Commissioners that heretofore, to-wit: on the 3d day of October, 1881, a petition of the majority of the frontage property owners along the north side of block Q, in the town of Reno, praying an order of the Board for the construction of a plank sidewalk along said block, and that on the 7th day of November, 1881, after due consideration and notice thereof, published in the Plaindealer, a newspaper published in said town of Reno, for the period of two consecutive weeks, and it further appearing that said sidewalk was constructed as per the order of this Board by all the frontage property along said block, except seventy-five feet, to-wit: fifty feet along the front of lots 10 and 17, owned by I. B. Marshall, and twenty-five feet along the front of lot 14, belonging to the Western Union Telegraph Company, in said block, and the Board thereupon advertised for bids for the construction of said sidewalk, to-wit: for the construction of said seventy-five feet of sidewalk and it appearing that the bid of Joseph Odell, in the sum of seventy-five dollars, was the lowest and best bid, and the same being accepted, and it further appearing that said sidewalk has been constructed by said Joseph Odell along the front of lots 14, 16 and 17, and that the cost thereof is $75.

Now therefore, it is ordered that the cost of the construction of said sidewalk be apportioned among the frontage owners of said lots as follows: To the said I. B. Marshall, owning lots 16 and 17, $50; to the said Western Union Telegraph Company, owning lot 14, 25 feet, $25.

NEWS OF THE MORNING.

Gladstone denies that there was any bargain with the Suspects.

Senator Ben. Hill is slowly improving, but is still in a critical condition from cancer in the throat.

There is a rumor that Queen Victoria has been assassinated, but the State Department has nothing in confirmation of the report.

The attack of neuralgia from which Bismarck is suffering will confine him to his bed at least a week. It is probable that his illness will tend to further the government's plan of proroguing the Reichstag until Autumn.

A railroad mob has taken forcible possession of the railroad at Crittenden, New Mexico. The cause of the riot was the presence of a number of Chinese laborers. They drove all the Chinamen from the camp and then seized Scott, Superintendent of Construction, and hung him to a telegraph pole until he promised to hire no more Chinamen.

THE HAWAIIAN MISSION.

The New York Times Washington correspondent says that ex-Congressman Daggett, of Nevada, will be appointed Minister to the Sandwich Islands. There is no doubt but that the Times correspondent has hit the nail upon the head. The term of Gen. Comly, the present Minister, will expire in June, and Mr. Daggett will be appointed to succeed him. The salary is $7,500 per year, and Daggett will be able to keep the wolf from the door on that sum. He will discharge the duties of the position faithfully, and still have plenty of time to devote to poetry and literature. His acceptance of the post will prevent him from being a candidate for Governor this Fall. Of course his appointment will be entirely due to the efforts of Senator Jones, who is to be commended for his exertions in securing Nevada Republicans proper recognition from the Administration, and in having our own citizens fill the Federal offices within the State. Every Republican in the State will thank him for his work in getting Daggett a Foreign Mission.

California Silk Culture.

The Census Bureau has issued a monograph on the silk industry of the United States. It contains a history of the different efforts made to produce raw silk in this country. It says that the cultivation of the mulberry was begun in California in 1854, and silk worm eggs were received there in 1860. In 1865 about 250 pounds of cocoons were obtained, and the product reached 1,900 pounds in 1868. The enterprise arrived at its highest point in 1870, when more than a million mulberry trees were growing in the State. This industry was encouraged by an Act of the California Legislature in 1865-66, giving a bounty of $250 for the planting of 5,000 mulberry trees, and $300 per 100,000 cocoons. The operation of the law, however, proved unsatisfactory, and it was soon repealed. An attempt to pass a new Act, "To encourage silk culture and manufacture," was defeated in the California Senate in 1872. The report further says that silk raising in California is now almost extinct, owing to the reaction against the speculative mania.

Farley's Desert Land Bill.

The Senate Committee on Public Lands reported favorably Monday morning on Senator Farley's bill to extend the time for making proof and payment on desert land entries. The bill provides that in all cases where declaration of intention to reclaim desert land has been filed, or may hereafter be filed, and satisfactory proof of the reclamation of the land has not been made, or shall not hereafter be made, within three years after filing the declaration of intention, and the failure to make proof is due to the difficulty in getting water, or to the great labor and expense in constructing irrigating ditches, or to some other cause not prejudicial to the validity of the entry or the good faith of the party making the same, the time for making proof and final payment, is extended two years. Proof of good faith and intention, in the application for extension, must be made to the satisfaction of the Commission of the Land Office, under such regulations as he may prescribe.

The judgment of the Supreme Court of the District of Columbia, sitting in banc, affirms the verdict finding Guiteau guilty of murder in the killing of President Garfield. This is said to put an end to every chance in favor of the assassin, and he will be executed on June 30th, which will be the 363d day subsequent to the killing.

THE COMING CITIZEN.

(Sacramento Bee.)

The immigration into the United States within the last few years has been simply enormous. Since 1864, according to the Government Bureau of Statistics, no less than six million eight hundred thousand persons have landed from foreign shores. Probably not less than ten million have been added to the population, or one-fifth of our present entire number. This is a condition of affairs that can be found in no other country, and shows that ours is the most cosmopolitan people on the face of the globe. The only wonder is that amid such a constant changing of ideas and customs as this vast and continuous immigration must naturally entail the political complexion of the country is not more disturbed. The two great parties which divided the people up to the time of the rebellion, twenty-one years ago, still hold sway and are so nearly evenly divided to-day that each claims, with more or less reason, to be slightly in the majority. This would make it appear that the new-comers, as they become associated with our own people and acquire a knowledge of the politics of the country, range themselves about equally on either side. And yet, if the wave of immigration should continue to swell in the next quarter of a century as it has in the past, who can tell what party will be in the ascendancy at that time, or what will be the leading questions of the day? It can hardly be expected that the new voters will be governed by past issues—questions in which they had no interest, of which, in fact, they knew nothing. The circumstances which led to the war of the rebellion, and which have thus far had much to do with shaping the course of parties, will have little or no significance to the great rank and file of voters in that day. They will care very little whether the Abolitionist of the North or the slave-driver of the South was in the right; whether Popular Sovereignty was the best thing for the Territories, or whether the slave-owners should have had the right to remove their human chattels wherever they pleased. They will not question whether Floyd and Jeff Davis stole Government munitions and money and sent them South for the purposes of rebellion, nor will they be apt to care very much whether Major Anderson first shelled the city of Charleston or rebel hands struck the first blow and sounded the first blast of war by firing upon the Federal flag. The flaunting of the bloody shirt, the Kluklux sable mask nor the recital of stories of outrages by "Lincoln's hirelings" will serve to rouse partisan mobs to that pitch of enthusiasm known in the past. Those who were the most active throughout the stirring events of twenty years ago—many of whom are yet political leaders and shapers of partisan policy—will have passed away, and new men and new issues will absorb public attention. In connection with this matter of immigration, it is gratifying to be able to note the fact that the majority of the new-comers are thrifty and industrious persons, who uniformly make excellent citizens. Their influence is seen in the rapid growth of the cities of the West, the filling up of the Territories, the enormous grain and cattle ranches, etc. There is in most communities a sufficient preponderance of the native element to govern and mold public opinion, and the immigrant therefore soon learns the ways and customs of the country, to a greater or less extent, although of necessity there must be less uniformity of sentiment than is to be found in countries whose people are more homogeneous. So long as Europe sends us good and industrious citizens to people our vast country and develop its unbounded resources, they will be welcome. That they will become good and loyal citizens and imbibe a just appreciation of the liberties and advantages vouchsafed them in this free republic, there can be no doubt.

NEWS NOTES.

Nine leading Independent Georgia Democrats have issued an address urging party support of Alexander H. Stephens for Governor.

A member of the minority says: If the contested election cases are forced ahead of the regular appropriation bills the chances are the session will extend in August.

The Longfellow Memorial Association have issued a circular asking for contributions of $1 each, for the purpose of permanently preserving the residence of the poet and erecting a memorial to his fame on the grounds.

It is said Blaine is supporting Senator Mitchell in his revolt against the Stalwarts in Pennsylvania, and that he will also be heard from in the canvass in Ohio, New York and from many other States, making things lively for the Stalwarts generally.

ATTEND THE PRIMARIES.

Every Republican should read and heed the advice given by the Carson Index, in the annexed:

Republicans who wish an opportunity to vote a ticket this Fall which is satisfactory to them must be on hand during the Summer and participate in the preliminary party proceedings. It is futile to await the action of others, or to suppose that the Democratic ticket will be at all preferable in any respect. The rank and file are always able to control matters their own way if they set about it with the spirit and understanding of intelligent citizens. The majority of those who vote at the primaries rule the party action and this is as it should be. Those who fail to attend to their party duties after having full opportunity extended to them have no good reason to complain if the results are not satisfactory. The simple duty which each Republican will have to do is to attend the primary meetings of the party and vote according to his own conscience. This is easy and effectual if attended to by all members of the party.

THE INSANE.

How They are Treated in a Certain Asylum—An Interesting Account.

In the Ward's Island Asylum there are now between 1,000 and 1,250 patients falling under the general divisions of mania, melancholia, dementia, amenia and paresis generalis. Many of these are not only insane, but sick and under medical treatment; some are too feeble to do any work; some are too violent, and some are too imbecile. But after subtracting all these classes, there are left a large number who have the intelligence, the strength and the skill necessary to make them valuable in the workshop. In regard to the employment of such persons as these, Mr. MacDonald gave the following facts from his experience.

Out of the 1,200 or more patients, about 400 are available for work. In this estimate those who do light chores in the building are not included, but simply those who pursue some regular calling for seven or eight hours a day. It might be supposed that they would have some unwillingness to work; but, on the contrary, they show much enthusiasm often. Of course much care must be exercised in selecting men for occupations which require the use of tools. But only the most docile and intelligent are chosen for these departments, and they are carefully searched every night to see that they have secreted no tools. It sometimes happens that patients become sullen or flighty, and refuse to work. In such cases they are allowed to remain idle until the spell passes away, when they are glad to begin again. In the mechanical departments a sane foreman is employed who directs the workmen. Though they are fond of employing themselves, yet, with the capriciousness of lunatics, they soon grow weary of doing the same thing all the time. And so recreation of some kind is necessary. They are therefore taken out for walks, or allowed to play foot-ball in the yards, or to play a sort of quoits in the halls, which consists in pushing a round wooden disk over the smooth floor, the object being to make it land in a chalked circle. There is also a pleasant amusement room, with a stage, in which concerts, plays and readings are given from time to time. The patients enjoy these entertainments with all the delight of children. In fact, in their work and play they have to be treated as children. On Sundays there are two religious services in the chapel—Roman Catholic in the morning and Protestant in the afternoon—and strange as it may seem these services are enjoyed by the patients mainly as a recreation, especially the music. These preliminary remarks will serve to show just what can and cannot be done, in the way of employing the insane in remunerative labor.—New York Tribune.

Another Aspirant for Arctic Honor.

The New York Graphic's Washington special says:

Master Lucien Young of the Navy, who desires to go to the Arctic regions under the provisions of the Calkins bill, says that his plan is entirely feasible, and will incur no special risk of loss of life. He proposes to keep near the shore. He would make two depots for supplies in case of retreat, one on the western coast of Greenland, and another further north at Lady Franklin Bay. He would then keep up the Greenland coast until he struck the northern limit of navigation and stop there, with his ship for the base of supplies. He would then send out parties on the land, and if the end of the land was reached, he would on the ice-pack establish small depots. This would be done during the Fall and Winter, so that the next Spring the party could make a dash for the Pole, following the line of the depots left the Fall previous to insure protection against starvation, and enable them to travel unencumbered by stores. He has the opinion of various Arctic travelers that his plan is the most feasible devised so far for the successful penetration of the Polar regions. He expects to find a more moderate climate at the Pole than for some distance to the south of it.

The first gun in the present season's campaign will be fired in Oregon on the 5th of next month, when a fall State ticket will be chosen and also a member of Congress.

The Liquor Question in Politics.

(Louisville Post.)

The temperance movement, as a power in politics, has appeared for the moment in the affairs of some of the States, Ohio in particular. The Pond liquor law was applied in Cincinnati yesterday, and litigation and excitement will be the result for months to come. It is said the State will go Democratic at the next election by reason of the identity of the Republican party with these harsh temperance measures. The temperance issue is like any other issue of minor importance in a governmental sense. No party can be successfully established on a principle which belongs properly to the domain of moral influences. The principle on which a party is successful is always one of general import and is practical in its nature. A principle may be sentimental, such as the desire for unity which has at times animated the politics of the United States, Germany and Italy, but it did not search into the individual lives of men, or control their habits of pleasure. A broad idea, such as that of free trade, will occupy the attention of the public to the exclusion of mere ideas on police regulations. It is easy enough and well enough in years when the general principles of a party to which a voter belongs will not be jeopardized, for him to unite in a rebuke administered to some evil by people irrespective of party. The Prohibition party has a perfect right to exist, and it will eventually accomplish a great deal of good. In New Hampshire the efforts of the temperance party will be detrimental to the Republicans for the time being, but as before intimated, this will only be indicative of a certain moral principle underlying the masses. The attempt to make a National party out of the Prohibitionists will be futile. In point of fact, no politician of any sagacity whatever will abandon the great parties of the country to assume the leadership of an impracticable movement. In Maine, the defection from the Republican and Democratic parties, it is hoped, will be so strong as to cause the one or the other of them to espouse the principle. Even this local effect will have no influence on the national parties. Local prohibition is a very different thing from national prohibition. Only monarchies and despotic governments attempt to control the morals of its people after that fashion. There is to be a liquor war in the approaching elections in Iowa, Kansas and Minnesota. The temperance movement is animated by the best of motives, but indirectly it demoralizes politicians, and leads to much disgusting hypocrisy. The liquor law can never be of national concern.

A Statute to Garfield.

The Society of the Army of the Cumberland proposes a popular contribution on Decoration Day toward the erection in Washington of a statue to the late President Garfield who was so conspicuous a member of that army. Contributions may be made through the Associated Press papers or sent directly to Lieutenant-General Sheridan, Chicago, or H. C. Corbin, Assistant Adjutant-General, U. S. A., Washington, D. C.

TOWN AND COUNTY.

Sam Lattin is still very sick.

The weather was very pleasant yesterday.

Old man Mastin is not expected to live long.

Haslund has commenced sprinkling the streets.

Gen. Connor, of Eureka, passed west last evening.

Dr. Bishop's baby is recovering from the scarlet fever.

R. M. Daggett was a passenger for the Bay last night.

Rev. C. McKelvey came in from Winnemucca last evening.

Carson astronomers have so far failed to find the new comet.

Put up your screens before the pests occupy your residence.

A large crowd of Renolites took in the Glendale dance last night.

Road Supervisor McFarlin is improving the looks of Second street.

Supt. Alex. McKenzie, of the Utah, was down from the Comstock yesterday.

Alvaro Evans and Louis Dean came up from the Bay yesterday morning.

Chas. Knust and family and Mrs. Henry Menke and children departed last night for Ukiah.

Sheriff Matt Kyle and Counselor Cheney, of Eureka, came down from Carson last night, en route home.

Letters addressed to Miss Hilda Medallion, and Miss Nellie Short, are held at the Reno office for better address.

Capt. Taylor of the Yellow Jacket, who is at Steamboat Springs, is not any better. He has had a bad cold and a very sore throat.

The Virginia Chronicle pronounces as important the connection of east coast No. 1 with the east lateral drift on the Union 2700 level.

Gov. Kinkadee came down from the Capital last night. He will go to Battle Mountain to-day to attend a meeting of the Nevada Southern Railroad.

Everything about Chase & Hayes' establishment is now in fine shape. The choicest wines, liquors and cigars are always to be found in these parts.

The case of McKelvey vs. Crockett comes up in the District Court to-day. It will test the question of the individual liability of stockholders in corporations.

Lovers of billiards will find at Chase & Hayes' billiard saloon, good tables and every facility for the "noble game." Also, the best wines, liquors and cigars to be found in town.

Hon. Trenor W. Park was a passenger on last night's west bound overland. Mr. Park is President of the Vermont Central Railroad, and was formerly a well known citizen of California.

A host of friends were at the depot last night to bid Charlie Knust good-bye. Reno has lost a good citizen, and everybody here hopes Charlie will make a fortune in and soon own the entire town of Ukiah.

Hugh Knust will endeavor to make it pleasant for all patrons of the Lake House. His long experience qualifies him for a model landlord. The Lake House location is a desirable one, and we hope Mr. Knust will do well in his new place. See his card elsewhere.

Fourth of July Excursion.

J. F. Aiken has only 50 tickets for the excursion to San Francisco and Monterey. Parties desiring tickets should secure them at once. Price $20.

Big Fandango.

Captain Sam informs the Enterprise that pretty soon the Pintes will have a "big dance" over at Walker river. The Pintes in this section will, of course, attend the fandango.

Bound Over.

Session George, the Indian arrested for the murder of Indian Charly, had his examination yesterday and was bound over by Judge Yeung to appear before the Grand Jury at its session. He admits the killing, but claims it to have been done in self-defense.

Appropriation for the Carson Mint.

The Legislative, Executive and Judicial Appropriation bill is completed and will be reported to the House of Representatives within a few days. It contains an appropriation of $108,550 for the Mint at Carson; for salaries, etc., $29,550; wages, $51,000, and incidentals, $25,000.

Agent Mayhugh Makes Terms With the Discontented Indians.

J. S. Mayhugh, who, at the instance of Acting Indian Agent Smith, went up to Tascorora on Wednesday, returned by stage to Elko Saturday. The Independent says Mr. Mayhugh does not enter upon the duties of the position to which he has been appointed until the first of next month, but in the interest of peace, humanity and the territory over which he will soon preside, he, in a grand pow-wow with the discontented and emaciated reservation refugees, poured oil upon the turbulent aboriginal waters, so to speak, by pledging his prospective authority in favor of organized, systematic government; the foundation of which grand superstructure is simply—more grub. With this soothing, but post-prandial assurance, the belligerent braves were much mollified, and the voices, so late supposed for war, roared gently as the sucking dove. Frontier diplomacy is an art in which Acting Agent Smith is evidently not versed; hence his error is mistaking the hollow rumblings of aboriginal empty bellies for the deep muttering of approaching war.

Astronomical.

Venus is now receiving a good deal of attention from Jupiter, so they say, and they have an appointment to meet some time this month. Venus will be, in the Summer, a beautiful telescopic object, exhibiting the phase of a crescent moon, and shining with extraordinary splendor. She is now swinging around on this side of the sun, preparatory to her transit across his disk in December, which is one of the most important of astronomical events, and for the observation of which various Governments have already begun to prepare expeditions. The astronomers have been preparing for it for twenty years, as it will be the last transit of Venus before the year 2004.

Humboldt's Sulphur Business.

Superintendent Rhodes, of the Humboldt Sulphur mines, was in Winnemucca Monday, and told the Silver State that, in consequence of the high water in the river they have not been hauling any sulphur to the railroad this Spring. They are getting everything in order for a good Summer's run at the mines, and have about 500 tons of crude sulphur on hand that yields about 55 per cent. of pure brimstone. The refining works will be started up soon and run steadily during the Summer.

Mr. Daggett's Book.

The Virginia Chronicle says: "Ex-Congressman Daggett's book, 'Braxton's Bar,' is now being printed in New York by the publishing house of Carlton & Co., and will be issued in the course of a few weeks. The work, we understand, gives, in the form of a novel the early experience of the author in crossing the plains, and many vivid pictures of pioneer life are drawn. Mr. Daggett's well established reputation as a writer is a guarantee that his book will be of more than common interest."

Bound Over.

Annie Levy, who is accused of setting fire to the Courthouse, had a hearing Monday evening and Justice Young bound her over to await the action of the Grand Jury. This will probably necessitate the calling of a Grand Jury at the June term of Court. While Mrs. Levy is languishing in the county jail awaiting a determination of her fate, her little daughter, seven or eight years old, will be cared for at the County Hospital.

"Suffer Little Children."

Rufus Buckley's little girl, aged two years, died of scarlet fever yesterday morning at 11 o'clock. She will be buried at 3 p. m. to-day. Mr. Buckley had everything packed a week ago yesterday to start for Oregon, when his little one was taken down.

The boy baby of Mr. Kennedy also died yesterday morning at 4 o'clock. This is another severe blow to them.

Where is She.

Harvey Oliver of Ruby Hill, is desirous of learning the whereabouts of his sister, Lou Culver, who when last seen by him was at Reno, Nevada, twelve years ago. She is supposed to have gone thence to New York. Her age is about 22 years. Anyone having any information concerning her will please communicate with the Ruby Hill News.

Racing at Salt Lake.

The Journal is in receipt of a circular from the Salt Lake Driving Park Association announcing a season of seven days' racing from June 24 to July 5, inclusive. Premiums, $10,000. Jack Gilmer is President and Jot Travis Treasurer of the Association.

Maggie Duggan.

At the performance of the "Mascot" at Tony Pastor's, in New York, on Monday evening, the 8th, Maggie Duggan, the Flanetta, during the dance in the last act, kicked her slipper into the gallery and made a hero of the god who caught it. The swift return of the slipper came near scalping a fiddler.

Narrow Escape.

Hugh Hughes, a young lad of about fifteen years, had a very narrow escape from death yesterday morning. He was thrown from his horse in front of Wilson's butcher shop, and his foot stuck in the stirrup. The little mare circled around three or four times, and then turned down Second street, dragging the boy along, and kicking as she ran. She turned him head over heels once, but strange to say her feet never struck him at all. A Journal reporter who saw the accident thought the boy's time had come, but luckily, just around the corner, the boy's foot dropped out of the stirrup, and he was saved.

An Odd Case.

The Board of Pardoners held a special meeting Monday to consider the justice of pardoning a young man named Peter Organ, son of ex-Assemblyman Organ, who was some time ago sentenced to four months imprisonment in jail at Winnemucca, for an assault. Since the young man has been incarcerated the Judge and jury acknowledge to having made a mistake in punishing the offender so severely. The pardon was granted.

Pyramid School.

Following is the roll of honor of Pyramid school for month ending May 12th: Joseph Clerk, 95.5; Winnie Monroe, 97; Mary Clark, 100; Jessie Hearon, 96; Maud Monroe, 96.5; Eddie Hearon, 92. Neither absent nor tardy: Mary Clark, Winnie Monroe, Maud Monroe.

JOSE E. WINTERMANTEL, Teacher.

Elko's Latest.

The latest sensation in Elko is a haunted house. According to the Independent if the demonstrations are half as absurd as the stories told about them, the reported disembodied spirits must have been originally escapes from the Damphool infirmary and should be at once materialized and kicked by a drove of healthy mules.

Tax Suit Appealed.

The Lander county tax suit against the Central Pacific Railroad Company has been appealed to the Supreme Court, at Carson. It will be heard during the July term of that Court.

AYER'S HAIR VIGOR
FOR RESTORING GRAY HAIR
To its Natural Vitality and color.
THE WEEKLY JOURNAL
Is the Best Country Weekly
THE PACIFIC COAST
Advancing years, sickness, care, disappointment, and hereditary predisposition, all turn the hair gray, and other of them induce to shed prematurely.
AYER'S HAIR VIGOR, by long and extensive use, has proven that it stops the falling of the hair immediately, and often renews the growth; and always surely restores its color, when faded or gray. It stimulates the nutritive organs to healthy activity, and preserves both the hair and its beauty. Thus brassy, weak or sickly hair becomes glossy, pliable and strengthened; lost hair regrows with lively expression; falling hair is checked and stablished; thin hair thickens; and faded or gray hairs resume their original color. Its operation is sure and harmless. It cures dandruff, heals all humors, and keeps the scalp cool, clean and soft—under which conditions, diseases of the scalp are impossible.
As a dressing for ladies' hair, the Vigor is praised for its grateful and agreeable perfume and valued for the soft luster and richness it imparts.
